Security Information

Mr. Dulles (Continued):

e. Noted a cable from the Senior Representative, [redacted] concerning Senator Knowland's trip in the Far East and asked whether it was necessary for him to send a personal message to Knowland. The Director was advised that the Senator had been given a briefing prior to his departure and the Senior Representatives in the principal areas to be visited had been notified of this and the fact that Senator Knowland might get in touch with them.

g. Reported that in a conversation with Admiral Radford yesterday, regarding the defected MIG in Korea, Admiral Radford had indicated it was planned to continue the $100,000 reward for aircraft of this type. The Director also noted that Admiral Radford had said the Under Secretary of State had agreed to this.

Mr. Amory:

Referred to the discussion at yesterday's Deputies' Meeting concerning the Secretary of State's speech before the A. F. of L., and stated that a review indicated the rate of exchange of the Ruble was about ten to one. The Director said he had not had an opportunity to read the Secretary's revised talk and asked Mr. Sheldon to follow through on obtaining a copy for him.

Mr. Kirkpatrick:
